

Vicki Bozzuto

Vicki Bozzuto currently oversees Gateway Community College's Continuing Education & Workforce Development Division. Before being appointed to this position, Vicki was Gateway's Allied Health Division Director for over 15 years where she managed 50+ faculty and staff in providing 2-year training programs in a variety of Allied Health disciplines.

Vicki has presented for the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc., Connecticut Community College System and at Radiation Therapy national board review seminars. She has co-authored the "Program and Discipline Review Process" for the Community College Board of Trustees which was adopted and implemented by the Community College System. In addition, she has received Community College Merit Recognition Awards and the Educational Excellence and Distinguished Service Award.