

Michael Konig

Dr. Michael Konig is the Founding Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Bay Path College. Before coming to Bay Path, Dr. Konig worked as the Presidential Fellow for Dr. Evan Dobbelle at Westfield State University. He is an urban planner and historian by training and has written on urban public policy, including the role of higher education as an economic generator in metropolitan America.