

Nancy Mark

Nancy Mark has been principal of The Mettawee Community School since its opening in 1998. The school was conceived when the two towns of Pawlet and Rupert, Vermont, joined to form a new union, closed their four aging district schools and built a new school for their children. Prior to her appointment as the Mettawee Community School Principal, Nancy served as principal of The Pawlet Schools for ten years. Nancy holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature from Wheaton College in Norton, Massachusetts, a Master of Arts degree from the University of Rochester and a Certificate of Advanced Studies in Education Administration from Castleton State College. Nancy was chosen as Vermont's Elementary Principal of the Year in 2000.
