

Mary Ellen Jukoski

Mary Ellen Jukoski is President of Mitchell College in New London, CT. Dr. Jukoski received her bachelor's degree in English and Education from the College of St. Rose in Albany, NY. She has earned two master's degrees, the first in curriculum planning and development from the State University of New York and the second in English from St. Rose. The University of Memphis awarded her an Ed.D. Degree in higher education curriculum and instruction. She has been a panelist for the Wellesley College Higher Education Resources Services (HERS) Management Institute for Women in Higher Education, the Harvard Graduate School of Education Management of Lifelong Education (MLE) and New President's Institute, along with the leadership seminar for College Presidents at Yale University. She served as a member of the Connecticut Department of Higher Education's General Education Task Force and previously served for 2 years as Chair of the Advisory Committee on Accreditation.