

Bruce Sievers

Associate Director

Bruce began his position as Associate Director of CPS after thirty-four years in Connecticut as a classroom teacher in English and Social Studies, assistant principal, and principal. His career began at Westbrook Jr/Sr High School followed by a transition to the CT Technical High School System. Bruce's prior association with NEASC includes serving as chair and assistant chair of many visiting teams for CTCI and the Commission on International Education (CIE). Additionally, he was a Commissioner for both CTCI (chair 2008-09; member Board of Trustees) and CIE. As Associate Director, Bruce's primary responsibility is to NEASC's member technical high schools and career technical centers.