

David S. Graves

David Graves is Managing Director, North America for Nord Anglia Education, a network of 42 private premium K-12 international schools located in 15 countries worldwide. He oversees 11 schools in Massachusetts, New York, North Carolina, Washington DC, Illinois, Texas, Florida and Monterrey, Mexico. He was previously CEO for Laureate Hospitality and Design Education, where he managed 13 higher education institutions in 9 countries spanning the US, Europe, China, the Middle East and Australia. David has been involved in recruiting international students to a variety of institutions in a range of countries for more than 15 years. He previously served as a Commissioner on the NEASC Commission on Institutions of Higher Education.