

George H. Edwards

Director, Commission on Public Schools

George joined CPSS in 2009 after many years of service to New Hampshire and New Jersey schools, where he served as Social Studies teacher, assistant principal and principal. George has the distinction of having opened two New Hampshire high schools as founding principal. He earned his MED in administration and his BS in social studies education from Keene State College.