

Dawna Perez

Dawna Perez, Dean of Student Success at NECC, oversees the college's Title V HSI Director, the Student Success Center, co-chairs the college's strategic goal teams around student learning, retention and improving career preparation skills and is a member of the college's First Year Experience Steering Committee, Academic Mast Plan and Strategic Planning Steering Committees, among others. Dawna also serves as project lead for Starfish Early Alert and is the Principal Investigator for NECC's iPASS grant administered by Educause in partnership with Achieving the Dream. Dr. Perez holds a BA from Colby, an MBA in Human Services from Brandeis's Heller School and earned her PhD in Organizational Systems from Saybrook University.