

Judith A. Robb

Judith Robb is currently the Faculty Fellow in the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of New Hampshire. Her responsibilities include reviewing and coordinating accreditation efforts, internal and external program reviews, and institutional effectiveness procedures. She also serves as the Institutional Liaison Officer to the New England Association of Schools and Colleges. As an Associate Professor of Teacher Education, Dr. Robb's scholarship addresses best educational practices and effective instructional settings. In 2004, she was named one of the first Outreach Scholars by the University. Professor Robb advises doctoral, master's, and undergraduate students pursuing teaching careers, and she teaches courses in the Teacher Preparation Division. Dr. Robb has been recognized for outstanding leadership and service by the Advisory Council of State Representatives (ACSR) to the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) and by the Northeastern Educational Research Association who awarded her the Leo D. Doherty prize for excellence.
