

Kathleen A. Montagano

Associate Director, Committee on Public Elementary and Middle Schools

Kathleen Montagano joined the staff in 2013 after spending many years as a mathematics teacher, assistant principal, middle school principal, assistant superintendent, and superintendent in Massachusetts public school districts. She earned the degrees of Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership from Nova Southeastern University, Master of Education in Educational Administration from the University of Massachusetts at Boston, and Master of Arts in Teaching and Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics from Bridgewater State College.