

Samuel W. Collins

Sam Collins has led the S.W. Collins Company as President for almost three decades. He has expanded the company from one location to four building material hardware stores, a design center, and a millwork shop. He is also a partner in two real estate development companies. Collins has taken an active leadership role in education and his community. He served as chair of the Caribou School Board in the late 90's and most recently as a co-chair of the Regional School Committee for school consolidation, which resulted in a successful union of three school units. In March of 2010, Collins was appointed to the University Of Maine Board Of Trustees and is currently serving his fourth year as Chairman. In his community, Collins has volunteered as chair of the United Way of Aroostook Campaign, as President of Leaders Encouraging Aroostook Development, and as President of the Caribou Rotary Club. In addition, he serves on the board of directors of MMG Insurance Company and of Aroostook Federal Savings and Loan Association. Rotary International recognizes Collins as a Paul Harris Fellow, an award for community service given. Collins earned a B.A. in economics and minored in government at St. Lawrence University in Canton, NY.
