

Carl R. Lovitt

Carl R. Lovitt has served as Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at Central Connecticut State University since 2006. Prior to that, Dr. Lovitt served for six years as Chief Academic Officer at a four-year college at Penn State University. At Clemson University, he held for ten years the position of founding director of the Pearce Center for Professional Communication, which was honored as the top-ranked communication program in the U.S. (Princeton Review 2000). He also taught for 14 years in the Department of English at Clemson University. He holds a bachelor's degree from Washington University, a master's from the University of Paris, and a Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin, Madison.