

Jodi Moore began her teaching career in San Francisco. She is currently a lower school classroom teacher at ACS Cobham International School in the United Kingdom. As a dual USA/UK citizen, she has been an elementary educator in public and private schools in both countries. In addition to team leader and New Teacher Orientation facilitator roles, Jodi has experience as a presenter with NWEA MAP. She has served as a Visiting Team member for two NEASC visits in Dubai, and has recently completed the ACE training.