

David Quigley

David Quigley, is the Provost and Dean of Faculties and Professor of History at Boston College in Chestnut Hill, MA where he has also served as Dean of the College and Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. David's degrees are from Amherst College, Amherst, MA and New York University. His service at BC includes Acting Associate Dean for First-Year Students and Founding Director of the Institute for Liberal Arts; he is the recipient of Boston College's Distinguished Teaching Award. He has won several awards including the 2004 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award for his book Jim Crow New York: A Documentary History of Race and Citizenship, 1777 to 1877 which he co-authored with David Gellman.