

“Flickering in the Dark . . .”

1. What other ideas do we have to light some fires of transformation in the way we manage and share our considerable financial wealth?
2. What are your ideas for transforming access and completion?
3. What do you think we can do to reclaim the greater values at stake for higher education and society?