

Veena Dhankher

Veena Dhankher is the Director of Institutional Research at Holyoke Community College. She has over 8 years of experience as an Institutional Researcher in the Massachusetts Community College system. In her current role as Director, she provides leadership for critical inquiry, evaluation and assessment of institutional effectiveness and supports the process of institutional planning and accreditation. Before coming to Holyoke Community College, Veena worked at a community college as the lead evaluator for the Achieving the Dream project providing institutional leadership in the collection, interpretation, and use of information. She holds a Ph.D. in Research, Evaluation, Measurement, and Statistics of Educational Psychology from the University of Georgia.