

Adolfo Costa

Adolfo Costa is an Assistant Principal of Teaching and Learning at Cumberland High School and serves as a member of the NEASC Committee on Public Secondary Schools. Costa coordinates professional development around curriculum and assessment mapping at the high school. He also is the coordinator of all Performance Based Graduation Expectations and supervises specialized programs. He frequently is asked to present to graduate school programs at Providence College.