

Hans de Wit

Hans de Wit is a professor and Director of the Center for International Higher Education (CIHE) at Boston College, MA. He has been Director of the 'Centre for Higher Education Internationalisation' (CHEI) at the Università Cattolica Sacro Cuore in Milan, Italy and Professor of Internationalization of Higher Education at the Amsterdam, University of Applied Sciences. He is a Research Associate at the Unit for Higher Education Internationalisation in the Developing World at the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University (NMMU), Port Elizabeth, South Africa and a consultant on 'Advancing models of best practice in internationalization of higher education in Kazakhstan' for the Graduate School of Education of Nazarbayev University in Kazakhstan, 2014-2015.

Professor de wit is the Founding Editor of the Journal of Studies in International Education, a member of the editorial board of the journal Policy Reviews in Higher Education; Associate Editor of International Higher Education; and Co-editor of the book series Global Perspectives in Higher Education. He publishes a monthly blog in University World News on internationalization of higher education, www.universityworldnews.com, and contributes to "The World View" at Inside Higher Ed on a regular basis.

He has (co)written several books and articles on international education and is actively involved in assessment and consultancy in international education for organizations, such as the European Commission, UNESCO, World Bank, IMHE/OECD, IAU, and European Parliament. Dr. de Wit is founding member and past president of the European Association for International Education (EAIE); a Member of the Board of Trustees of World Education Services (New York); and Member of the Internationalisation Advisory Boards of Stenden University of Applied Sciences in The Netherlands, the University of Göttingen in Germany and the Universidad Cooperativa de Colombia in Medellin.