

Peter C. Mott

Director, NEASC/CIE

Peter Mott was appointed NEASC Director of the Commission on International Education, PS-12 on July 1, 2012. Previously Peter served as Director of Zurich International School (ZIS) from 2001-2012, and from 1989-2001 as Director of the American International School of Zurich (AISZ). He served on the Boards of the Council of International Schools and of the Academy of International School Heads, and was a member of the Commission on American and International Schools Abroad (CAISA). He was a Klingenstein Visiting Fellow at Columbia University. He is a Trustee on the Board of the Educational Records Bureau (ERB), and a member of the National Association of Independent Schools' (NAIS) Commission on Accreditation. Peter has led numerous accreditation teams to international schools in Europe, Africa, the Middle East, South America, and Asia. He is a Swiss citizen and was educated in Switzerland, Germany, the UK, and the U.S.