

Alan Tenreiro

Alan Tenreiro comes from a family of educators. His grandfather was a high school assistant principal. His mother was a teacher. His sister is a teacher. Upon graduating from high school, he enrolled at Rhode Island College and began chasing his dream. He earned a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in educational administration from Rhode Island College and a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies from Northeastern University. He taught social studies at his alma mater, Mount St. Charles Academy, for seven years; was named assistant principal at Smithfield High School in 2006; and principal at Cumberland High School in 2012. He served as a member of the Pawtucket School Committee from 2003-2007 and 2010-2014 and was named Chair of the committee five times by his peers. Alan co-founded and co-moderates #Edchatri, a leading educational Twitter chat in the state and country. In 2016, he was named National Principal of the Year by the National Association of School Principals. Please follow him on Twitter @alantenreiro and at www.alantenreiro.net.