

Harry E. Dumay

Harry Dumay is President of the College of Our Lady of the Elms. Prior to joining Elms College, Dr. Dumay was Senior Vice President for Finance and Chief Financial Officer at Saint Anselm College; Chief Financial Officer, Associate Dean for Finance and Information Technology at the Harvard School of Engineering and Applied Sciences; and has also held senior leadership positions in finance and administration at Boston College and Boston University. Dr. Dumay received a BS degree magna cum laude in Mechanical Technology from Lincoln University, Missouri; a MA degree in Public Administration from Framingham State University; a MBA and graduate certificate in Corporate Finance from Boston University; and a Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration from Boston College. Dr. Dumay has consulted on projects related to international higher education and economic development. He served as the external evaluator on a multi-year USAID-funded grant for a partnership between the University of Massachusetts and the State University of Haiti. Dr. Dumay is a Commissioner for the Commission on Institutes of Higher Education at the New England Association of Schools and Colleges and a member of NEASC's Annual Report on Finance and Enrollment committee. He serves on several boards including the finance and investment committees of the Catholic Medical Center in New Hampshire and the Haiti Development Institute at the Boston Foundation.