

Thomas Dwyer

Vice Chancellor and Provost
Johnson & Wales University

Thomas Dwyer, vice chancellor and provost, has been employed at Johnson & Wales University for over thirty years. Prior to his current position, he served the university in numerous roles, including faculty member, budget director, and vice president of finance. Tom is responsible for the creation, implementation and execution of the university's strategic plan, and also serves as the university's chief academic officer. A graduate of Bryant College in Smithfield, R.I., he received both his bachelor's and master's degrees in accounting. Prior to joining JWU, Tom worked as a certified public accountant for Ernst & Young. He is currently serving a three-year term as a commissioner for the New England Association of Schools and Colleges. Tom was also a basketball coach for over ten years.