

Lucy A. Singer

Lucy Singer joined the UVM General Counsel's Office in 2005 and currently serves as Deputy General Counsel. She holds a bachelor's degree from Southwest Missouri State University; a graduate degree in Social Work from Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri; and a Juris Doctor degree from St. Louis University School of Law. After completing a federal clerkship with the Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, Ms. Singer was in private practice in St. Louis, Missouri, where her practice focused on education law for K-12 public school districts and private institutions and representation of institutions of higher education in Missouri and Illinois. In 1999, Ms. Singer became Associate General Counsel for Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, where she provided legal advice and service to the University until 2005, when she joined the General Counsel's Office at University of Vermont.