

Jon Oxman

Jon Oxman, public member from Maine, is an attorney with Linnell, Choate & Webber LLP in Auburn, Maine. His areas of practice include workers' compensation, civil litigation, health law, professional responsibility and insurance law. He earned his baccalaureate degree from Tufts University and his J.D. from Boston College Law School. Mr. Oxman has been admitted to practice in the State and Federal Courts in Maine, the United States Supreme Court, and the First Circuit Court of Appeals. A former Chair of the Maine Bar Grievance Commission, the Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar, and the Board of Trustees of the Maine Client Protection Fund, he is now a member of the Fee Arbitration Commission.

He is Regional Chair of the Tufts University Alumni Admissions Program and a member of the National Alumni Council of Tufts.