

Eric Schneider

A career education professional, Eric Schneider was recently named associate superintendent of Minnetonka Public Schools in Minnetonka, Minnesota, one of the top performing school districts in the country. Before that, he spent six years as Minnetonka's Assistant Superintendent for Instruction. Schneider leads the District's Teaching and Learning Department, as well as Minnetonka's innovation efforts, working with staff to launch new programs such as VANTAGE, Tonka Online, and Tonka Codes, while also spearheading an overarching academic program that continues to reach new heights in student achievement. Previously, Schneider served as Principal of Vintage High School in Napa Valley Unified School District and was Assistant Principal at Washburn High School in Minneapolis. He began his career as a teacher in the Minneapolis Public School District. Schneider currently serves on the EdLeader21 National Advisory Board, he advises Global Silicon Valley's annual Innovation in Education Summit, and he leads the Twin Cities' Community Innovation Partnership. Schneider was selected by the Midwest Suburban Superintendents Association as its Warren Fellow in 2017. He earned his undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, and is currently completing his doctoral degree at Concordia University in Chicago. He resides in the Minnetonka community with his wife, Juliette, and his two sons, Matteo and Dylan. Follow Eric Schneider on Twitter @TonkaEric
